PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: February, 1945. WW II rages. In northern Italy, the 10th Mountain Division does the impossible, scaling a 2000' cliff on a cold winter night to knock the Germans from their impenetrable perch. Their success hung on a slender string: military brass expected 90% casualties.

"The Last Ridge" tells the remarkable story of how the 10th turned the tide for the Allies in Italy, revolutionized mountain warfare abroad and transformed winter sports at home. With 1000 WWII veterans dying daily, this is a story that must be told now by the soldiers who know it best.
